Understanding Multiculturalism through Storytelling

Presented by
Dr. Veena Kasbekar, Professor of English, OUC

Using fables and tales from the Ancient Greeks, Indians, Arabians, Chinese, and the Maori, this workshop will explore the potential for acculturating Southern Ohio students in global thinking. Time: 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Unlocking Doors--Therapeutic Storytelling

Presented by
Lynne Pierce-French, MS, L.P.C.C., N.C.C

This workshop is designed to introduce participants to storytelling as a therapeutic tool. It focuses on the history and purpose of storytelling and how storytelling can be used as a therapeutic intervention for people of all ages with different diagnoses and treatment needs, in individual, family or group therapy. It will teach participants the techniques of therapeutic storytelling, how to discover their own life story, and helping clients recapture their own memories and create their own life stories. It will show how to capture the power of storytelling to help clients resolve issues, heal and grow.

4 CEU's (pending approval by the State of Ohio Counselor and Social Worker Board)

Time: 12:30-4:30 p.m.

Presented in conjunction with Southern Ohio's Storytelling Festival
(www.southernohiostoryfest.com)

Saturday, September 11, 2004
